Class Poem

Time is a stern and relentless master,
Driving us ever and ever on,
Making the golden hours move faster,
With never a thought of moments known.

Now we come to the hour of parting,
All too soon we must say adieu,
Time is urging us to be starting,
Farewell to the dear classmates we knew.

Time bids us that we must be leaving,
Sadly we know that our school days are done,
A smile will be hiding our hearts that are grieving,
Farewell to the Class of Fifty-One.

Class Prophecy

While walking down the main street in South Bend, I thought I saw a familiar face approaching. Sure enough it was Virginia Bailey, now Virginia Miller, with her three children. Virginia told me Georgiann and Cliff were coming from their farm near Twelve Mile for supper. She asked me to come too, and having nothing special to do, I accepted.

During the evening I learned what the rest of the class of "51" was doing since they had left the dear old Lucerne High School. Jimmy Hickey and Mary Lou are doing very well on their dairy farm with Jimmy as local 4-H leader of Harrison Township. I also learned that Joann Frushour is now after much hard work, the private secretary of the President. When I asked about Sandra Dillman, Georgiann told me that after she had been out of school for about a year or so she had married Joe. They are now living happily on their farm near Royal Center.

I learned that Bill Cook is still with the National Guard, and is one of the top surgicial doctors. Nellie Carter, now Mrs. Mikesell, is living in Fulton teaching her children to be as neat and pleasant as she.

Then someone mentioned Charles Remely. Georgiann informed us Charles had gone to Purdue and in his first year made the basketball team and graduated with high honors. He is now on a farm near Lucerne and has a good start of a basketball team. The class didn't want to get too far apart for they are all right around Lucerne. Jack Herd and Phyllis are doing fine raising beef cattle, Jack's speciality. Not far from Jack's farm is Richard Crimmins's Chester White Hog Farm. Of course everything went well with his wife, Sarah Jane Herd, running the business of the work.

I learned that Barbara Henry, now Barbara Hoover is very busy in her home near Twelve Mile raising her six children. Although Herbert Hanna always said he didn't care for girls, he is now married to Joyce Bresson and they are living in Lima, Ohio where Herbert is doing very well as a lawyer and Joyce's time is occupied by taking care of their three children.

Much to my surprise I learned that Lester Wallace is now coaching a basketball team, and is a swimming instructor in Chicago during the summer months.

That seemed to be everyone of the class of "51" except Wilma McQuinn and Bob Ashby. Virginia said that Wilma had taken up art and had married her art teacher. She is living in New York.

No one knew what had happened to Bob so we decided to turn on the radio. The first thing we heard the announcer say was, "Now stay tuned in to hear Bob Ashby and his band. They put on a very good fifteen minute program.

As I left Virginia's house I was thinking of each graduate and the success he had gained for himself.

JOKES

Bill Cook, an undertaker found a donkey lying in front of his premises and went to inform the police.
"What am I to do with it?" he asked Richard Crimmins, the officer in charge.
The officer had a sense of humor. "Do with it?" he asked with a grin, "bury it, of course. You're an undertaker, aren't you?"
"That's true," replied Bill, "but I thought it only right to come and inform the relatives first."

Aspiring Vocolist, Sarah Jane Herd: "Professor, do you think I will ever be able to do anything with my voice?"
Perspiring Professor, Charles Remley: "Well, it might come in handy in case of fire or shipwreck."

Jack Herd, a motorist, was helping Barbara Henry, His extremely fat victim to rise, "Couldn't you have gone around me?" growled Barb.
"Sorry," said Jack sadly, "I wasn't sure whether I had enough gasoline."

Jim Hickey, a farmer, hired Herbert Hanna for help. Jim said, "Where's that mule I told you to take and have shod?"
Herb: "Did you say shod? I thought you said shot. I've just been burying her."

Nellie Carter (angrily), "And I suppose you expect me to believe that you came straight home from the office?"
Bob Ashby: "Sure did, just like the crow flies."
Nellie: "Yes--stopping frequently for a little corn."

Mother (Sandy Dillman), "Another bite like that and you will have to leave the table."
Hungry Boy (Les Wallace), "Another bite like that and I'll be through."

Lover (James Stevens), eloping with his adored: "How much is the fare?
Taxi Driver (Paul Henry): "That's all right, Sir. The young lady's father settled all that!"

Joann Frushour (From upstairs): "I'll be ready in a minute."
Husband (Bill Ashby, a little later): "No hurry now dear! I've got to shave again."

Joyce Bresson: "Georgie, when you wait on tables tonight be careful not to spill anything."
Georgie: "Don't worry, Ma'am, I know when to keep my mouth shut."

Teacher: "Wilma, where was the Declaration of Independence signed?"
Wilma McQuinn: "At the bottom, I guess."

Virginia Bailey: "Well, doctor, was my operation a success?"
"I'm not your doctor; I'm St. Peter."
